2018 FOOTBALL SEASON

GETTING BACK TO IT

The 2017 season was a year of adversity for the Cougars not often experienced. A combination of youth and inexperience with 25 members of the two-deep missing time with injuries contributed to a 4-9 season not often experienced by the program. With last season in the rear view mirror and a renewed dedication to get back to winning, BYU football is working hard to prepare for the 2018 season.

The 2018 season features another loaded schedule, with matchups against eight teams that played in a bowl game in 2017. The schedule features a Pac-12 heavy lineup of four teams including Arizona, Cal, Washington and Utah. In addition to the Pac-12 slate, BYU will face top-10 Wisconsin of the Big Ten in Madison. The Cougars also take on teams from the Mountain West, including in-state foe Utah State, regional rival Boise State and Hawaii. Fellow independents UMass and New Mexico State are also on the schedule along with a matchup against the MAC's Northern Illinois and FCS power McNeese State.

Spring football helped lay the groundwork for a successful 2018 season. With some fresh faces along with an experienced core, BYU is ready for the upcoming challenges of a new year.

SPRING OUTLOOK: OFFENSE

Coordinator: Jeff Grimes

The offense returns a lot of experience and talent for new coordinator Jeff Grimes. Coach Grimes instilled in spring a workman-like attitude with accountability and a focus on details and effort. The BYU offense will feature a multiple look with varying formations from under center and shotgun to maximize the team's current talent and build a successful system for years to come based on the Cougar program's strengths.

QUARTERBACK

Coach: Aaron Roderick (Passing game coordinator)

The quarterback position is loaded with talent and experience. Senior Tanner Mangum is back and despite being limited in spring as he fully recovers from a 2017 injury, the 21-game starter for BYU is the most experienced signal caller in the mix. Junior Beau Hoge and sophomore Joe Critchlow both started games last season and have impressed in the spring. Leading the newcomers is Zach Wilson, the Corner Canyon High School star who enrolled early to participate in spring football. In addition to Wilson, freshmen Stacy Conner and Baylor Romney enrolled in January and also took reps in spring and add depth in the quarterback room. Another new face is Hayden Griffiths, the twin brother of fullback Kyle Griffiths.

2017 QBs LOST: Kody Wilstead (transfer)

RUNNING BACK

Coach: AJ Steward

The stable is full for new running backs coach AJ Steward. All of the top backs from 2017 return, led by senior Squally Canada. The California native ran 120 times last season for 710 yards and six touchdowns. After leading the scout team in 2017, redshirt freshman Zach Katoa showcased his skillset during spring and is expected to be a factor in the fall. Riley Burt, a junior, also made strides in spring and proved to be a powerful and speedy option. Unavailable in spring dealing with injury, big back Ula Toluta'u returns after gaining 303 rushing yards last season with two scores. Also working his way back from injury is KJ Hall, a versatile junior with 390 career rushing yards and 189 receiving yards. Kavika Fonua is another back that adds depth but is also recovering from a spring injury. The fullbacks both return with Brayden El-Bakri heading into his senior year as the primary blocker with sophomore Kyle Griffiths getting some action as well.

2017 RBs LOST: Austin Kafentzis (moved to defensive back)

WIDE RECEIVER

Coach: Fesi Sitake

The wide receiver group will look to take another step forward in 2018 and have a few playmakers emerge. Junior Micah Simon took on the leadership role in spring and is one of the top targets returning. He picked up 386 yards, three touchdowns and 27 receptions in 2017. Aleva Hifo had the top marks from the 2017 crew with 37 receptions, 437 yards and two touchdowns and is back for his junior season. Talented junior Talon Shumway returns along with Akile Davis with an eye toward earning a spot in the rotation. Sophomore Neil Pau'u is back after seeing action last season along with senior Rickey Shumway. Inoke Lotulelei has impressed in spring and will look to break out in 2018 while Tariq Buchanan redshirted 2017 and is ready to contribute. Trey Dye, who spent last season with the running backs, is also returning to the receiver group for his senior season. Luis Soto, a wideout from Florida, joined the squad during spring.

Tariq Buchanan	6-0	190	FR.	Elgin, Texas / Elgin HS

2017 WRs LOST: Jonah Trinnaman

TIGHT END

Coach: Steve Clark

Another position of strength has to be the tight ends. The headliner is sophomore Matt Bushman, returning after his All-American freshman season where he led all FBS freshmen tight ends with 49 receptions, 520 yards and three touchdowns. Of all the 2017 tight ends in college football, Bushman is the top returning statistical leader. Bushman will have some more running mates this season with Joe Tukuafu now eligible and the emergence of senior JJ Nwigwe in spring football. Moroni Lauulu-Pututau should be ready for fall and adds a big-time pass-catching threat to the mix after being one of the top wideouts in 2016. Redshirt freshman Nate Heaps had a solid spring and could contribute while freshman Tanner Leishman impressed in his first year of football after being a top high school basketball player. Tanner Redding also had some strong moments in spring with the club.

TIGHT END

JJ Nwigwe	6-5	260	Sr.	Rockwall, Texas / Rockwall-Heath HS
Moroni Lauulu-Pututau	6-4	240	Jr.	Hyrum, Utah / Mountain Crest HS
Matt Bushman	6-5	240	So.	Tucson, Arizona / Sabino HS

Nate Heaps	6-4	239	Fr.	American Fork, Utah / American Fork HS
Tanner Leishman	6-6	225	Fr.	Las Vegas, Nevada / Desert Hills HS

2017 TEs LOST: Tanner Balderree, Hunter Marshall, Nate Sampson (moved to defense)

OFFENSIVE LINE

Coach: Ryan Pugh

Despite losing experience on the interior of the line, a young group of talented linemen is ready to fill the void left by three starters in the middle. Redshirt freshman James Empey has a handle on the center duties after backing up Tejan Koroma last season while Notre Dame transfer Tristen Hoge should man one of the guard positions. It is possible freshman All-American Thomas Shoaf could move to the other guard position after getting reps there in spring after spending the past two seasons at tackle. On the outside, senior Austin Hoyt returns after starting every game at right tackle last season while redshirt freshman Brady Christensen looks promising at the left tackle spot if Shoaf moves inside. Sophomores Kieffer Longson and Austin Chambers also have experience and will be in the mix, along with junior Jacob Jimenez back after missing last season with an injury. Chandon Herring is another talented sophomore with game experience along with Addison Pulsipher. Senior Ului Lapuaho participated in spring and is still getting back up to speed after missing most of the last two seasons with injuries. If the senior with 18 starts can get healthy he would bolster an already deep group. Harris LaChance, a 6-foot-8 recruit had a good spring and could also be a factor in the fall.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN

Austin Hoyt	6-8	305	SR.	Ione, California / Argonaut HS
Ului Lapuaho	6-7	340	SR.	West Valley City, Utah / Hunter HS
Thomas Shoaf	6-5	290	JR.	Columbus, Indiana / Columbus North HS

2017 OLs LOST: Tejan Koroma, Keyan Norman, Tuni Kanuch

SPRING OUTLOOK: DEFENSE

Coordinator: 'Ilaia Tuiaki

The defense returns a lot of talent for 2018. Up front, the defensive line returns rangy Corbin Kaufusi and big men in the middle Khyiris Tonga, Tevita Mo'unga and Merrill Taliauli. Youngsters Keanu Saleapaga, Lorenzo Fauatea and Zac Dawe all had productive springs and add depth up front. The leader of the defense is senior Butch Pau'u in the middle while speed rush specialist Sione Takitaki returns to his natural position at linebacker. Coaches used spring football as an opportunity to move some positions and experiment with ways to get the best 11 players on the field. As a result, starting safety Zayne Anderson was asked to put on weight and move up to flash linebacker to help fill the void left by NFL-bound Fred Warner. Dayan Ghanwoloku also moved over from starting corner to one of the safety spots.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Coach: 'Ilaia Tuiaki (Defensive coordinator)

The Cougars look to have a lot of bodies to use up front with an influx of younger players now ready to contribute. On the edges, Corbin Kaufusi returns along with Trajan Pili. Uriah Leiataua has been productive in spring along with the newest Kaufusi, Devin, the youngest in a long line of Kaufusi brothers. Langi Tuifua also returns as a sophomore after having a role as a freshman. In the middle, Khyiris Tonga, Tevita Mo'unga and Merrill Taliauli have power and experience to clog the gaps. Lorenzo Fauatea is back after a successful freshman campaign while Keanu Saleapaga looks to finally make an impact after redshirting last season. Wayne Tei-Kirby, an Oregon transfer, is also eligible to play this season and could factor in.

LINEBACKERS

Coach: Ed Lamb (Assistant head coach/Special teams coordinator)

Filling the shoes of Fred Warner will be no easy task in 2018. Zayne Anderson has the speed and the frame to add some weight so the former starting safety has been dubbed the heir apparent after spending spring there to get settled. Morgan Unga and Isaiah Kaufusi should provide additional depth at the flash spot. In the middle, Butch Pau'u is healthy and ready to put his final stamp on the linebacker spot for 2018 while Christian Folau looks to be a star in the making in the middle. Sione Takitaki is back at linebacker, his natural fit, to provide a pass rush and athleticism to the group while AJ Lolohea impressed in spring along with Hirkley Latu. Adam Pulsipher is a savvy veteran with loads of experience that can play every linebacker spot.

2017 LBs LOST: Chaz Ah You, Phillip Amone, Garrett England, Rylee Gautavai, Grant Jones, Va'a Niumatalolo, Will Sedgwick, Fred Warner

CORNERBACKS

Coach: Jernaro Gilford

The corner spot features several talented athletes that are back with more experience in 2018. Chris Wilcox looks to secure one of the spots and with Dayan Ghanwoloku likely staying at safety, the other starting corner position could belong to returning to Troy Warner when he returns from injury in the fall or Trevion Greene had a good spring to show his skillset along with redshirt freshman Keenan Ellis. The Cougars also expect Austin McChesney back and during spring moved speedy Beau Tanner over from wideout to compete at corner.

2017 CBs LOST: Cody Stewart, Hiva Lee

SAFETIES

Coach: Preston Hadley

New coach Preston Hadley will work with the safeties to find replacements for Micah Hannemann and likely Zayne Anderson, who moved to linebacker. Dayan Ghanwoloku shifted over from corner pretty seamlessly in spring while Austin Lee took command of the other safety spot. Isaiah Armstrong also moved from corner after redshirting last year and Tanner Jacobson has plenty of game experience. Gavin Fowler is another veteran while the defense snagged another athlete from the offense when running back Austin Kafentzis moved to safety during spring.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Coach: Ed Lamb (Assistant head coach/Linebackers)

The kicking game brings back veterans Rhett Almond and Andrew Mikkelsen. Almond took the bulk of the work last season while Mikkelsen was more of a kickoff specialist, though both can placekick. Almond was also the backup punter last year and looks to compete for the punting duties in 2018. Both long snappers, Mitch Harris and Matt Foley, return while newcomers Joshua Harden and Bret Matthews were added to the competition in spring. The fall will bring in Australian rules football player Danny Jones into the punter competition and four-star high school prospect Skyler Southam to the placekicking group.

In 2018 BYU enters its eighth season of independence as the only school with an exclusive television partnership with ESPN. After making the announcement on Sept. 1, 2010, BYU started competing as an independent in 2011 while also beginning a new partnership with ESPN to televise Cougar football home games on the sports leader's family of networks.

"BYU is nationally recognized as an outstanding university and for the history and tradition of its premier athletic programs," said Burke Magnus, ESPN executive vice president, programming and scheduling. "Once BYU decided to chart an independent course for football, we both recognized it is a good opportunity to build and grow our strong 30-year relationship. With this agreement, college football fans around the country will see the quality and pageantry of BYU as well as the passion and enthusiasm of its supporters."

One of the most important goals in becoming an independent was the opportunity for more national exposure for the university and football program. As an independent, BYU has had 68 games over the past seven seasons on one of the ESPN networks. Last season BYU had nine games on one of the ESPN networks, including three games featured on both ESPN and ESPN2, one of ABC and two carried on ESPN3 as well as BYUtv.

Overall, BYU is tied for 17th in the country for the most national TV games since going independent in 2011. In that span, 73 percent of BYU's games have been featured on a national TV channel (70+ million households).

BYU has also sought better access for the Cougars' national fan base and the opportunity to schedule high-profile opponents. Since 2011, BYU has played teams from the SEC, Big 12, Big Ten, Pac-12, ACC, American, Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Western Athletic Conference, and fellow independents Notre Dame and UMass and boasts upcoming games scheduled with Power 5 programs such as Tennessee, Missouri, Michigan State, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Baylor, Virginia, Virginia Tech, NC State, USC, Oregon, Stanford, Cal, Washington, Washington State, Arizona, Arizona State and Utah among others.

Every BYU home football game will be televised to a live national audience on the ESPN family of networks or BYUtv. Each year, a minimum of three home games will be carried on ESPN, ESPN2, or ABC while additional games can also be televised on those networks or on ESPN3. At least one game each season will be carried live on BYUtv. Additionally, BYU fans are able to view same-day rebroadcasts on BYUtv of every home game and any away game to which ESPN has the rights through conference agreements with the host team.

ADDITIONAL BYU FOOTBALL PROGRAMMING ON BYUtv

BYU is the only school in the country with nationally televised live 60-minute pregame and 30-60-minute postgame shows before and after every game—home or away. BYUtv also produces daily and weekly BYU-centric sports shows, including the Kalani Sitake Coach's Show, as well as additional BYU football specials throughout the year to highlight events such as National Letter of Intent Day, BYU spring football, BYU Pro Day and the annual BYU Football National Media Day in late June, which also includes live programming on ESPN3.

BYUtv and BYU Radio/Sirius XM 143 simulcast a daily news show—BYU Sports Nation—that airs live each weekday from noon-1 p.m. ET/10-11 a.m. MT from Studio B at the BYU Broadcasting Building in Provo with an additional airing the same day at 6 p.m. ET/4 p.m. MT. The latest news and information about BYU sports are discussed each day by hosts Jarom Jordan and Spencer Linton. During the football season BYUtv also features a weekly one-hour show—After Further Review—where host Dave McCann and a panel of experts provide in-depth analysis of the tactics, plays, and touchdowns of every BYU football game.

BYUtv is available in 60 million North American homes and is growing every month. It's on the basic tier of both Dish and DirectTV and is carried by more than 800 cable systems. The network constructed its own state-of-the-art production building that will allow it to televise every game in HD, along with its HD truck with the capability of broadcasting while on the road.

KALANI SITAKE

BYU HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Kalani Sitake (pronounced kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay) was named head coach overseeing the BYU football program on December 19, 2015, by director of athletics Tom Holmoe.

A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake returned to his alma mater with 15 years of coaching experience, including seven years as a defensive coordinator and four seasons as an assistant head coach.

Entering his third season leading the BYU program, Sitake helped the Cougars win the 2016 Poinsettia Bowl and has helped six Cougars earned roster spots in the NFL, including fourth-round pick of the Green Bay Packers, Jamaal Williams.

He came to BYU from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 2015. Sitake spent 10 seasons at the University of Utah. He started at Utah in 2005 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 before also being named assistant head coach in 2012.

Sitake coached several Pac-12 and Mountain West Conference honorees, including Morris Trophy winners Star Lotulelei (2011) and Nate Orchard (2014). He also helped mentor 14 NFL Draft picks during his time at Utah, including 12 all-league players and three freshmen All-Americans. He helped the Utes win seven of eight bowl games during his tenure.

Sitake began his coaching career in 2001 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Eastern Arizona before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at BYU in 2002. Sitake then joined the staff at Southern Utah where he coached running backs, tight ends and offensive line during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

Born in Nuku'alofa, Tonga, and raised in Laie, Hawai'i and Provo, Utah, Sitake became the first FBS head football coach of Tongan descent. He is the 14th head coach in BYU history, and just the fourth since 1972, when Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards took over the program.

Sitake began his BYU playing career in 1994 prior to serving a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Oakland, California. After returning and redshirting in 1997, Sitake was a three-year starter at fullback for the Cougars from 1998-2000 under Edwards.

He was named BYU's Football Scholar Athlete of the Year in 1998, Impact Player of the Year in 1999, along with team captain and the most valuable running back in 2000. He signed a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals in 2001, but was forced to retire due to an injury.

Sitake graduated from BYU in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in English. He and his wife Timberly have three children, Skye, Sadie and Kelaokalani (KK).
